

HENRY COUNTY RESOURCE COURT

CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

Individuals participating in the Henry County Resource Court are entrusted to the care of the staff and given assurance that all information is held in strict confidence. Individuals are protected by state and federal laws of confidentiality (HIPAA & CFR42), which if violated could result in fines up to $5,000.00.

Information about an individual's presence, referral status, condition, or treatment experience must not be discussed with anyone except those who are directly responsible for client care and treatment.

On this date, I agree to accept and take full responsibility for following this and all other rules and regulations while here and after leaving.

Visitor
Date

Date

HCRC Staff Member